QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Northern Indiana is far from home! What else is nearby, before or after the Unite/Ignite event?

With proximity to Notre Dame, Lake Michigan, and Chicago, your family can experience giant sand dunes + urban adventure. Rolling Prairie is only 30 minutes from Notre Dame, with the Sacred Heart Basilica and Lourdes prayer grotto; 30 minutes from giant sand dunes at Indiana Dunes Nat'l Park on Lake Michigan; 1.5 hours from Chicago, with an array of urban experiences, art, and culture. (See photos below for kid-friendly options.)

See www.choosechicago.com/articles/families/30-kid-friendly-things-to-do-in-chicago.

Charming, walkable small towns such as Three Oaks, MI, and LaPorte, IN, are 20 minutes from the school. A unique Catholic site, The Shrine of Christ's Passion, is located in St. John, IN (check out shrineofchristspassion.org).

What are the options for lodging?

Numerous options are 15–25 minutes from Rolling Prairie, IN, near the Indiana/Michigan border.

15 minutes away are Holiday Inn Express, Comfort Inn, and Hampton Inn, all in LaPorte, IN.

For lodging near Lake Michigan, check VRBOs in New Buffalo, MI. Shoreline towns within reach include Michiana Shores, IN; Grand Beach, MI; and Duneland Beach, IN. Higher end options: Marina Grand Resort and Harbor Grand Hotel (both in New Buffalo, MI). Middle tier examples: Gordon Beach Inn (Union Beach, MI) and Holiday Inn Express & Suites (Valparaiso, IN). Most economical and adventurous:
